

Fairfax County Special Education PTA presents:

Navigating FCPS Special Education:

Details That Make a Difference in Your Child's Special Education

Led by Cheri Belkowitz,
Special Education Attorney

The special education process is complex, and navigating the system can be challenging. This presentation is an excellent opportunity to expand your understanding of how to effectively use the special education process to meet your child's needs in public school. Learn how to best advocate for your child and avoid common pitfalls! This presentation can help you improve your understanding of how to use numerous options in each part of the process, from testing and eligibility through goal-writing, accommodations, services, and annual reviews.
